

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CANDIDATES LICENSED IN OTHER STATES

Out of State Applicants may apply for a Connecticut real estate license BASED ON THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

- ✓ Applicant must have passed a written examination in the State in which they are licensed;
- ✓ Applicant must have an active license in good standing;
- ✓ Sponsoring Broker (if required) must have an "Active" Connecticut license.

IF YOU DID NOT TAKE AN EXAM IN A RECIPROCAL STATE: Submit your real estate school certificates and/or college transcript with course descriptions for possible pre-licensing education credit.

LEGAL ENTITIES

- If you have a corporation, limited liability company or partnership, CT requires that you apply as a legal entity using the Legal Entity application process.
- Select: Legal Entity Application
